2065
Visual Story

This is the set of 2065. This is what you will see when you enter the theatre.

2065 is a story set in the future where music is banned.

Inside the theatre you will meet three characters called The Rebels. This is the Matriach, the leader of The Rebels.

This is the New Recruit, the newest member of The Rebels.

This is the Musician, they keep music alive in secret.

Sometimes the characters will sing songs, sometimes they will do actions, sometimes they will talk to you. It is OK to talk to them.

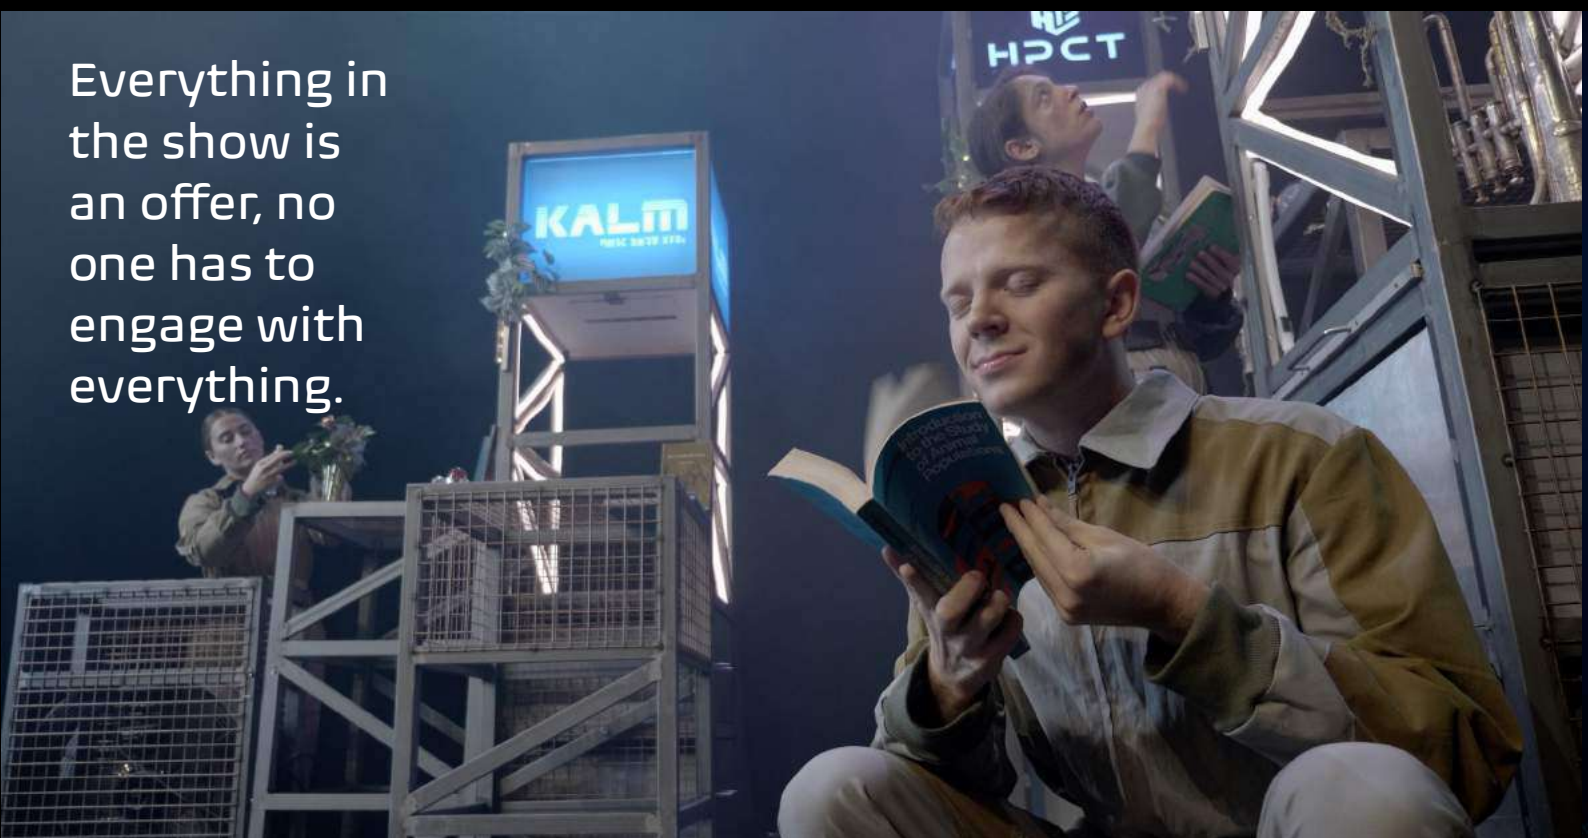

In the show there are things to touch. In the show there are things to smell. In the show there are things to taste.

All props and set will be cleaned and sanitised between shows. There will be bowls of things to put your hands in, these will be fresh for your show.

Whenever a character comes close to you they will wear a mask and sanitise their hands. They will not wear a mask when performing on stage.

Everything in the show is an offer, no one has to engage with everything.

Your support team will be encouraged to support you to explore all the sensory elements of the show so you can have the best experience possible.

You are free to move around the space. You are welcome to make as much noise as you need to. If you become distressed, you can leave the show and re-join whenever you feel ready.

You can take photos but please don't let this distract from the audience experience. Please do not take videos of the production. If we take photos and video, we will ask for your permission.
